Errors

in ©2024 Science Books!

with Brian Lauer

Tuesday, September 16, 2025, at 7:00 pm

See several errors found in ©2024 science textbooks that prop up a blind chance perspective of the past. Brian Lauer presented these errors to the curriculum director and school board, but nothing was done to correct these errors. Equip your kids to expose these errors, know what your taxes are funding, and get involved in the battle for the hearts and minds of the next generation.
